Tis the season for lottery luck!

Neenah, Evansville players claim big instant wins

(Madison) —Just in time for the holidays, John McKeon of Neenah and James Gallman of Evansville have hit it big with Wisconsin Lottery instant scratch games.

McKeon won $100,000 playing the Lottery's $15 "Tis the Season" instant game. "Tis the Season" is a HUGE, oversized holiday game with great play value that can be folded down the middle like a greeting card. McKeon's $100,000 prize is one of two in the game.

After taxes McKeon received a check for $67,250.

Gallman won $50,000 playing the $5 "Nest Egg" game. Loaded with $50 prizes, "Nest Egg" offers players up to 15 chances to win on each ticket.

Gallman's after-tax payment was $33,625.
