Hartland man turns convenience store stop into “royale” windfall

(Madison)— Jeffrey Wollenhaupt of Hartland walked into his local Stop-N-Go on Capitol Drive as a convenience store customer.

He walked out a casino jackpot winner.

Wollenhaupt recently won $25,000 playing the Wisconsin Lottery’s “Casino Royale” instant scratch game.

Each $10 “Casino Royale” ticket features a blackjack, dice, slots and roulette game, along with a top prize of $75,000.

Each game is played separately, so players can win up to 27 times on one ticket.

For selling Wollenhaupt’s $25,000 ticket, Stop-N-Go earns a $500 commission from the Lottery.

Lottery retailers who sell winning tickets with prizes of $600 or more earn the equivalent of 2% of the prize, up to a maximum commission of $100,000 per ticket.
