Three $10,000 Powerball winners claim prizes

(Madison) —It's shaping up to be a great weekend for three Wisconsin Lottery Powerball players. They've each claimed their $10,000 prizes from three separate Powerball drawings.

Mary Omson of New Berlin claimed her $10,000 prize from the October 18th drawing. Mary bought her $10,000 ticket at Pick 'N Save, 13995 W. National Ave. in New Berlin. It was a $2 quick pick.

Rudolph Valentino of Grafton bought his $10,000 winning ticket for the October 8th drawing at MAM Petroleum, 1020 Washington St., in Grafton.

Amanda Horneck of Saint Cloud has validated her winning ticket from the September 27th Powerball drawing. Amanda bought her $10,000 winner—a $5 quick pick—at Plymouth Oil, 1611 Eastern Ave. in Plymouth.

Players win $10,000 in Powerball by matching four of the five regular winning numbers plus the Powerball. Winners have 180 days from the date of the drawing to claim their prizes.

For selling these $10,000 winning tickets each of the retailers earns a $200 commission. Wisconsin Lottery retailers who sell tickets with prizes of $600 or more earn the equivalent of 2% of the prize, up to a maximum commission of $100,000.
