Not just two, but FOUR $350,000 SuperCash! prizes for Mount Horeb couple

They win $1.4 million with tickets bought at four different stores

(Madison) —Verlyn and Judith Adamson of Mount Horeb made it a clean sweep today as they validated the third and fourth $350,000 prizes from the Wisconsin Lottery's August 16 SuperCash! drawing.

Monday, they claimed the drawing's other two winning tickets.

The Adamsons won $1.4 million with four separate SuperCash! tickets, purchased in four different communities, all for the same drawing. They bought their winning tickets in Barneveld, Darlington, Mineral Point and Mount Horeb.

"We haven't seen anything quite like this before," said Andrew Bohage, Lottery spokesperson. "This is unique."

Four $350,000 prizes for $1.4 million—in cash. The Adamsons receive approximately $955,000 after taxes.

Saturday's winning SuperCash! numbers were 01, 05, 08, 13, 24 and 26. Mr. Anderson reportedly chose to play those numbers based on a "formula" he has been working on.

The Adamsons have declined to take part in a press conference, telling the Lottery that a statement will be issued by their attorney.
