The dollar signs align: Neenah woman wins $6,000

(Madison)— Kathryn Parker of Neenah recently won $6,000 playing the Wisconsin Lottery's "Double Match" instant scratch game.

The $2 "Double Match" game features a twist on the old-fashioned scratch-and-match play style. Players have two ways to play and two ways to win on each ticket.

They can match their numbers to the "Winning Numbers" and win the corresponding prize...or...they can win by matching three like prize amounts in the play area.

"Double Match" has 12 different prize levels, ranging from $2 to $6,000.
